Next Week in 5th Grade

Math- We will be reviewing sequencing, odd and even numbers, whole numbers, and decimal places.

Reading- We will begin our reading unit called Nature's Fury. There are several stories to go along with this unit as well as practice book pages and activities.

English- We are reviewing what a sentence is, the 4 types of sentences, and the parts of a sentence.

Religion- We will learn about how the Bible is God's Word and how God ALWAYS keeps His promises.

Social Studies- We will begin studying the early peoples of the Americas. We will be reading the lessons as well as doing many activities with the information that we read.

Science- We will be learning about plant and animal cells and body systems. There will be a lab on Tuesday and students will work in groups to study the body's systems on Friday.

Spelling- Pretest over this week's words is Monday. If your child gets an 'A,' they don't have to take the post test Friday.

Memory Work- Memory for next week is Luther's Morning Prayer. It is on page 5 of the green memory book.

Spanish- Students will begin Spanish this week with our new teacher, Señora Cecilia Thompson! Please welcome her!

A Few Reminders

- Students should have their P.E. uniforms by next week. Please check in the office to purchase uniforms.
- If your child is presenting his/her "Me Box" on Monday or Tuesday, please remind them to bring it in.
- If you have not already turned it in, please sign and return the Classroom Contract.
- If your child is participating in soccer, volleyball, or cross country there is a meeting for parents in the gym after school on Monday.
- If you'd like to order an AR t-shirt, please turn in the form and money by August 19.
